2. Our chapter will carry out the following roles. (Select from Part I of the Chapter Handbook.)

Our chapter will carry out the roles of education and networking. We will also work to increase membership for the chapter and for CNU. These roles will be carried out both at the state and regional levels.

3. Our initial chapter objectives are as follows. (List objectives for the first year. Objectives must be consistent with Chapter Purposes.)

- Facilitate regional events hosted by members
- Sponsor an annual event that features New Urbanism projects in Florida
- Host a chapter website and e-mail list to encourage the exchange of information and ideas
- Sponsor programs aimed at increasing chapter and CNU membership
- Publicize the work of the chapter through an ongoing communication program
- Update, every two years, The Guidebook to New Urbanism in Florida, which features Florida New Urbanist developments and articles on Florida New Urbanism
- Support the creation of a New Urbanism student organization that will serve the planning and design programs at our Florida universities

4. The following describes the structure of our chapter.

The Florida Chapter will be a 501(c)(3) organization established and operated by Florida CNU members. Initially, we will have a three-member Executive Committee composed of a Chair, Vice-Chair, and Secretary-Treasurer. We anticipate adding chapter committee chairs as the need arises, as well as designated representatives of metropolitan regions with active CNU member networking groups.

5. Our chapter will encompass the following geographic area.

The State of Florida

6. The following summarizes the types of commitments made to help create and expand the Organizing Committee.

- 27 people have agreed to be a Founding Member of our chapter by pledging a collective $21,440.00
- 25 people have agreed to recruit at least one member to join our Florida Chapter and CNU and 30 people have agreed to renew their membership in CNU
- 30 people have agreed to serve on our Chapter Organizing Committee or to help in some other way to create a strong Florida Chapter of CNU
- 30 people have agreed to help convene chapter networking and educational events within their metropolitan region
